"ALI BABA AND THE FORTY

THIEVES" "All Baba and the Forty Thieves is soon to be presented to Honolulu by local children under the able direction of Mr. L. Young Correthers, who has just returned from London, where the children take such an important part in play acting. This word will develop expression and self-relience in the children and will help broaden their character and mental vision. The costumes are to be gorac ous, as we might expect who remenber the splendid costuming of the peacock ballet done here two years ago, designed by Mr. Correthers. The scenery is being built to fit the size and needs of the children's playlet. Two performances of the Arabian Nights standby are to be given, one on Friday afternoon, Jan. 11. at 4:30, and the second one on Saturday morning, Jan 12, at 11, thus enabling all of the children in Honoluly to go and enjoy this fascinating story. Mr. Correthers and his splendid talent need no introduc tion to a Honolulu audience.

There will be twenty-four characters in the play and the leading players are Katherine Kilbourne, Mary Louise Love, Harriet Hitchcock, Irene Campbell and Pauline Young.

MRS ANTONIO PERRY AND MISS WOODFORD GIVE "WAR SIL-VER BRIDGE."

Mrs. Antonio Perry and Miss Woodford gave a "war silver bridge" on Friday efternoon. Nine tables were used. It was a very simple party, the prizes being silk hose. They were won by Mrs. Marold Hayselden, Mrs. George Mrs. L. C. Howland and Miss Ann Johnson. The refreshments were war cookies in which no sugar or butter was used, nor was any white flour

The fruit punch was made of grape juice and ginger ale, and in that sugar was also eliminated, so it was a "Hoover party." In the collection basket was secured $11.75, which will be sent to a worker in Paris to be used as she sees fit.

The guests enjoying Mrs, Perry's and Miss Woodford's hospitality were Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. W. Gaynor, Claude Watson, Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. Fred Jamerson, Miss Louise Lucas, Mrs. L. E. Davis, Miss Ehrhorn. Mrs. A. S. Conningham, Mrs. Harold
